Burial of the Dead.

Many of Them Laid Away Unidentified,

MORE BODIES RECOVERED

Slow Work in Removing the Acres of Debris.

GUNPOWDER BROUGHT INTO EFFECTIVE USE.

Another Day Only Increases the Harvest of Death in the Conemaugh Valley. Noble Responses of the Nation in Sending Car Loads of Provisions and Large Sums of Money for the Relief of the Destitute.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., June 7.—Yesterday all the bodies that remained unidentified were placed in coffins and removed to places of burial. Each coffin bore a card on which was a description of the body and clothing and any article of use or value found on the remains. As the bodies were carried and deposited in the yard an undertaker made a copy of the description, together with the morgue number, as well as the place of burial. The list will be posted at different places throughout the town for the information of inquiring friends. Very few of these, however, will ever be identified from these descriptive cards.

Recovering the Corpses. The work of digging out the corpses yet in the ruins scattered all over the place is progressing somewhat slower. The fifteen bodies taken from the door of Alina hall were the last recovered. It is impossible to tell when the unfortunates will be dug out if ever, although a large force of men are at work at the hall.

Yesterday the first blast of gunpowder was fired at the bridge. It proved more effective than any of the charges of dynamite heretofore used, and hurled fragments of debris 200 feet into the air. Mingled with it was a round fragment, which looked like the trunk of a human body. It fell back into the water with a great splash and glided with the swift current under the bridge before it could be pulled in with pike poles. Explosion after explosion of dynamite followed the blast of gunpowder, the detonations coming so close together that they might almost be taken for the continuous discharge of heavy guns. An opening 400 feet long, which runs back in some places fifty feet, was made during the afternoon.

Scarcity of Food. Scarcity of food for the men owing partly to a lack of utensils to cook, caused a small sized riot at the labor camp yesterday morning. It was quelled, however, by a speech from Mr. Flinn, the contractor, who afterwards had the two ringleaders expelled from town. Tents for the laborers to sleep in are arriving from Washington, and fully 5,000 men are now at work.

Plan of Sanitation. Dr. Graff was given charge of the sanitary commission. Dr. Graff talked at length on the different plans of sanitation for the flooded district, and finally said: "There is but one sure, safe plan, burn everything. I think the order will be issued this evening to burn everything all over these districts. This is the surest plan to prevent any contagion or epidemic, but understand, there is no immediate danger of epidemic as long as the weather keeps as cool as it is now. There is not so much danger from decomposition and putrefaction unless the weather changes and becomes warm. There is no use in exciting the people in Pittsburgh and other points down the river. We have received 10,000 pounds of best disinfectant known, but it is simply impossible to disinfect a body being under a pile of debris. I couldn't give you any idea of what it would cost to disinfect these districts, but I do know it would be the biggest kind of an undertaking."

Dr. Graff's plan of disposing of the debris above the bridge is to scatter oil over it and burn it.

Dr. J. Guy McCandles was here yesterday in consultation with the state board of health and others with reference to clearing the river from Mineral Point to Pittsburgh. Wherever it is possible he thinks the bodies ought to be immediately cremated on the banks or in such places as they have fallen, thus relieving the river of its element of pollution. The gentlemen with whom he talked heartily coincided with his views and will co-operate with him in the work, which will be commenced at once.

Removing the Debris. Five thousand men are now at work clearing away the debris on the island. Gangs came in from Hollidaysburg, Sand Patch and half a dozen other places and reported for duty. They were put to work at once, most of them without any breakfast.

Still more men are needed, at least 2,000 more, and they will likely be here to-morrow. Mr. Flinn estimates that it will take 10,000 men sixty days to clear away the wreck. At this rate it will require $4,500,000 to pay for the work. This does not include the other expenses. Five million dollars will not be enough to put Johnstown in shape for rebuilding.

Early yesterday morning four hoisting engines were started at the east end stone bridge, and the work of clearing away the debris at that place was begun. Several hundred men are at work on it and the channel is gradually being cleared. The progress is very slow, however, and up to noon it was almost imperceptible. Better time will be made after the gorge of logs has been fairly started.

Rubber Gloves Needed. Superintendent Bradinger, of the Grand View cemetery, says his men are in need of 200 pairs of rubber gloves. The bodies now brought there for interment are so badly decomposed that it is becoming exceedingly dangerous to handle them without rubber gloves, and coffin them with any regard to decency.

Trains Loaded With Supplies. John B. Scott, who is in charge of the general headquarters, reports that telegrams are pouring in from all parts of the country, bearing the cheerful information that whole train loads of supplies are en route for the sufferers. While there was a shortage of food and all kinds of supplies yesterday morning, there will be plenty for all soon, as the railroad facilities are being bettered every hour.

But Few Children Found. One feature of the disaster is noticeable at the morgues, particularly at the Fourth ward school-house. At any time may be seen lines of tearful mothers inquiring for young children and infants. Some say they do not want to see them if the remains are mangled and turn away slowly when told that there are no children inside. It appears a little strange that, although the number of lost children must have been very large, the number found has been proportionately small.

A Missionary's Body Found. The baggage of Miss Annie Chism, of Nashville, Tenn., a passenger on the day express which was swept from the track at Conemaugh, has been found. She was a missionary on her way to Brazil, for the Women's Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church. Her watch, some money and a Greek testament were found. The effects of Miss Chism were sent to Altoona. It is evident that many lives were lost on this train. The whole affair is still a mystery.

No Inquest Necessary. There will be no inquest held on the bodies of the thousands of residents of the Conemaugh valley who lost their lives in the world's unprecedented catastrophe. The law of the state does not require such an investigation, and the responsibility of the disaster which can be directly charged to the insecure wall that held the water of Conemaugh lake, will never be legally determined unless survivors should take independent action. All reports that arrangements for an inquest had been made are untrue.

Troops Only for Guard Duty. In Cambria City shortly after midnight Wednesday night some drunken aliens caused trouble and one company of the Fourteenth regiment was sent to the scene but their services were not needed. Adj. Gen. Hastings says troops are needed only for guard duty and denies the report that he ordered the Tenth regiment out.

Rescued Alive. A mother and daughter were rescued alive yesterday afternoon suffering from the nervous shock and hunger. They were at once removed by rescuers and placed in charge of friends. Both will recover, as neither was badly injured in a bodily sense.

Notes. Yesterday a hand-satchel containing $91 in cash; deeds for $26,000 in property and $10,000 in insurance policies was found. Mrs. Lizzie Dignam was the owner and both she and her husband perished in the flood.

A live horse, with harness on, but so badly injured that it had to be shot, was taken from a pile of wrecked houses yesterday.

Notices are posted asking for carpenters, stonemasons and bricklayers, but they do not materialize.

A house-to-house canvass was commenced this morning to secure the names of the living, and find out where the missing are, it being apparent that a large number of survivors will not take the trouble to register at one of the stations.

Dr. Lee said late yesterday afternoon that one case, presumably typhoid fever had been reported from some distance out of town. The doctors say there is not a case in town.

Large quantities of sulphate of iron were placed in various parts of the ruined city yesterday as a disinfectant.

When the Gautier steel mill, of the Cambria Iron company closed down at 10 o'clock last Friday morning, nearly 1,400 men left the works. When the men yesterday answered the notice that all should present themselves ready for work, only 487 reported.

Fifty men were arrested yesterday for looting about Booth & Flinn's tents and stealing the provisions from the workmen.

Thirty-two bodies were recovered yesterday. Ninety-three bodies were buried in the Sandy Vale cemetery, eighty-two of them being "unknown."

The register of the New Hullert house has been found. It is thought that Sidney McCloud and F. B. Delp, of Chicago, and W. F. Dow, of New York, are in the ruins.

APPEALING FOR HELP.

The General Relief Committee of Pittsburgh Issues a Card.

PITTSBURG, June 7.—The general relief committee in this city gives out the following:

"Hon. W. Flinn, in charge of our laborers at Johnstown reports that it will require 10,000 men thirty days with all modern appliances to clear the weeks along the ten miles of destruction, take out the corpses and the carcasses of dead animals and place the city in safe sanitary condition. This will cost double the amount now in the hands of the committee which does not include the relief for the suffering and destitute, which is very great, all of which has been carefully attended to.

"The destitute are brought to this city, fed, clothed and housed or sent free to friends all over the land. We ask that the generous subscriptions which are coming from all over the country be continued until sufficient funds are provided to complete the above work of which due notice will be given through the press.

"WILLIAM MCCREERY,
"Chairman."

The amounts so far received by the general relief committee is between $250,000 and $300,000.

Loss of Life and Property.

The loss of life by the flood in the towns of Mineral Point, Franklinborough, East Conemaugh, Woodvale, Kersville, Cambria, Minersville, Morrellville, Sheridan and Coopersdale, which, with Johnstown, constitute the string of communities in the direct path of the flood, is about 2,000, and the loss of property, exclusive of Pennsylvania railroad property, about $6,000,000. Johnstown proper and Millville will possibly add 7,000 to the death list and about $18,000,000 to the financial loss. The Pennsylvania railroad's loss will be about $10,000,000 more, making the total loss as near as it can now be figured over 9,000 lives and more $34,000,000 of property.

The loss of life at Johnstown proper is but little more than a guess. It is too large a place for anybody to know everybody, and the survivors are so scattered that the registration of the living, which has reached 12,000 in the district, indicates nothing. The loss in the smaller towns is obtained from leading men in each, who have in a measure got their heads again, and are able to think with some coolness.

Repairing the Railroad.

Although not less than 5,000 workmen are busy repairing the Pennsylvania railroad, between Pittsburgh and Altoona, the officials can form no estimate of how soon through connection will be established. There have been nine bridges washed away on the road, six of which are gone between Altoona and Harrisburg.

Elks' Reunion Postponed.

The National reunion of Elks was to have been held in Pittsburgh, June 19, 20 and 21, has been postponed until July 16, 17 and 18 owing to the disaster at Johnstown.

Undertakers Go to Johnstown.

Thirty undertakers went to Johnstown this morning to assist those already there.

"If we have warm weather," said Mr. Beinhauer, "the effort will be terrible, and I am afraid that even one warm day will cause many of our assistants to desert us. No man who has weak nerves or weak stomach could go to Johnstown now."

Fate of the Passengers.

PITTSBURG, June 7.—The official railroad reports of the dead and missing from the east bound trains that left Pittsburgh last Friday now give the number at fifteen passengers and the colored porter of the Pullman car, New Orleans. There are no losses from the first two trains. The corrected list of dead is:

Mrs. Talbot, nee Long, of Cleveland, with two or three children.

Cyrus Selick, of Reading, and his sister-in-law, Miss Stinson, who is a sister of Judge Stinton.

Mrs. Selick saved her life by going into the car to secure her water-proof.

John Ross, of Jersey City.

Mrs. J. B. Ranney, of Kalamazoo, Mich.

Miss Jennie Paulson and Miss Bryant, of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Misal, manager of the Mansfield, O., base ball club.

Miss Agnes C. Christman, of Beauregard, Miss.

L. Phillips, colored, porter of the New Orleans Pullman car.

Mrs. Swinford and daughter.

Mrs. Smith and child, of Dayton, O., where the bodies have been forwarded.

Miss Harnish, of Dayton, O.

Andrew Ewing, of Ligonier.

Mrs. Mary Swing, of Bellefonte.

Relief Through the Governor.

HARRISBURG, Pa., June 7.—At 9 o'clock the governor had received from and been authorized to draw on parties in various portions of the country $203,000.

Insurance Companies Contribute.

INTEFFORD, Conn., June 7.—The Etna Fire Insurance company has contributed $1,000 for the Johnstown sufferers. The Phoenix Fire Insurance company has contributed $1,000.

The Fund of New York City.

NEW YORK, June 7.—The mayor's fund for Johnstown has reached $163,000 and the chamber of commerce funds $42,000. Other funds are also increasing rapidly.

Johnstown Relief in Paris.

PARIS, June 7.—The Johnstown fund now amounts to £2,000.

Appealing for German Sympathy.

BERLIN, June 7.—The Nord Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung in an editorial on the Johnstown floods, closes with a call upon German generosity in aid of the sufferers. America, it says, has never been slow or niggardly in responding to the voice of distress when it arose in Europe. Let us now show Americans that Germans too can be generous.

Recovered from the Drift.

PORTSMOUTH, O., June 7.—Large number of relics of the Johnstown disaster were picked up at this point in the floating drift. At Sciotoville a pocket-book containing $5.26, a set of silver spoons marked "S. Y.," a bank book of the First National of Johnstown, with a credit to Nathan Dyer and two locks of hair, mementoes of lost loved ones, were found.

Inquest Continued.

Another Days Testimony in the Cronin Case.

SOME CLAN-NA-GAEL SECRETS.

Dr. Cronin was Expelled from the Order. Some Damaging Evidence Against Alexander Sullivan—A Witness With a Bad Memory But Still Remembers Some Things Very Distinctly.

CHICAGO, June 7.—The Cronin inquest was resumed at 10:15 o'clock. Willard J. Smith, the young man who was for a time suspected to be Coughlin's friend from Michigan, was the first witness. Nothing new was developed by his testimony. One of the sensations of the day was the introduction of the books of the firm of J. T. Lester & Company, containing the account of the dealings of Alexander Sullivan with the concern.

L. Moore, a clerk in the employ of J. T. Lester & Company, was then called. He testified from a memorandum to certain transactions Alexander Sullivan had with the firm. They were chiefly in railroad stocks, and covered a period from June 1, 1882, to February 28, 1883. The total trades showed a loss to Sullivan of between $5,000 to $8,000. The total amount of margins was $125,000.

John W. Moore, the collector for the same firm testified as to the amount of collections.

Thomas O'Connor, an employee of the city law department, was the next witness. He was a member of Camp 86, Clan-na-Gael, the same one to which Coughlin and P. O. Sullivan belonged. He had known Dr. Cronin for four or five years. Dr. Cronin told him he was afraid of his life, on account of some exposures he had made of misappropriations of funds by certain members of the Clan-na-Gael. He did not mention any names. Witness advised him to go around at night. Had known Coughlin for four or five years. He met P. O. Sullivan in front of his house the third night after Dr. Cronin's disappearance. He asked Sullivan how long he had known Cronin. Sullivan said, ever since John Finerty ran for city treasurer.

Witness was present when Daniel Brown, of Camp 10, Clan-na-Gael, and a police officer on duty at Stanton avenue station, presented and read charges in Camp 93, which he had presented in Camp 10. They charged Dr. Cronin with reading in the camp of which he was the chief officer, a circular from a camp which had been expelled from the order by the executive body.

A committee composed of Lawrence R. Buckley, Frank Murray, Daniel Coughlin, John F. O'Malley, James J. Cuneo and one other whose name he did not remember, were appointed to investigate the charges. They reported the result of their investigation to the executive body, which expelled Dr. Cronin.

On Friday after Dr. Cronin's disappearance, witness met Dan Coughlin and Officer Whelan on a corner. They spoke of the disappearance. Coughlin said he believed Cronin was in London with LeCaron. Witness expressed belief that he was true to the Irish cause, and was not there. Coughlin replied: "I hope he is over there and is alive."

Witness then told of having been approached by a man unknown to him, who told him he might be selected for some work across the water. On Dr. Cronin's advice he determined to have nothing to do with it.

At the afternoon session John A. Beggs, the lawyer, who has figured in the case as a personal friend of Alexander Sullivan, and who went east on a mysterious mission for the latter, was the principal witness. Under a close cross-examination he admitted that he was the present senior guardian of Camp 20 of the Clan-na-Gael. There was no roster of the camp in existence. He could not swear that he did not meet Detective Coughlin on the day of Cronin's disappearance nor on the following day, pleading faulty memory. He remembered, however, that he was at the Grand Pacific on the night in question with a party of friends.

At a camp meeting in January he said there were several attacks by inuendo upon Alexander Sullivan, and in response he pitched into the speakers and handled them without gloves, telling them that if they wanted to abuse Sullivan they should mention his name and not attack him under cover in a cowardly manner. He repeated the story of going to New York May 14, and meeting a man named Powers, who told him that he had met Starkey, the fugitive jury briber. From thence he went to Spring Valley, N. Y.

Witness emphatically denied that he had sent a dispatch from that point signed with his initials and to the effect that he had met Dr. Cronin. From Spring Valley he went to Niagara Falls, where he met John H. Remyne, a member of the Clan-na-Gael executive committee. They had a general talk. He had seen Alexander Sullivan since his return, but not a word passed about the finding of the body. Replying to a final question, Beggs said that he had no theory regarding the murder.

A. J. Ford, another member of Camp 20, corroborated previous witnesses regarding Cronin having been expelled at the time from the order. Incidentally it came out that Thomas Murphy, father of the Miss Murphy who claimed to have seen Dr. Cronin in a street car on the night of the murder, was a member of the trial committee.

Cotton Mills Burned.

LONDON, June 7.—The cotton mills in Offenburger, Baden, were destroyed by fire yesterday, involving a loss of 300,000 marks. Several workmen were killed.

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.

ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors.

FRIDAY, JUNE 7, 1889.

The Democrats of Mason should turn out and attend the precinct meetings to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

EX-SENATOR McDONALD, of Indiana, thinks that the comparison between the administration of President Cleveland and that of his Republican successor will, in 1892, decide the Presidential election in favor of the Democrats. We think so too, if Quay, Dudley and that gang of hoodlums don't "fry enough fat" out of the manufacturers again to decide the other way.

The late Democratic primary in Brown County resulted in the nomination of the following excellent ticket:

Representative—W. W. Pennell.
Auditor—Jo. W. Hobling.
Treasurer—E. A. Tissandier.
Recorder—C. C. Chaney.
Commissioner—R. C. Drake.
Sulphur Director—Thos. W. Weaver.
Messrs. G. G. Hiett, Robert Helm and Jake Schwab were chosen Township Committee for Huntington Township.

Warning to Dr. Frazee's Friends.
Dr. Frazee's friends should be on their guard to-morrow. It is rumored that a quiet effort is being made to capture the precinct meetings and defeat him for the nomination for Representative. We don't know whether there is any truth in the report or not, but we are assured that it is from a reliable source. There is no doubt that he is the choice of the county for Representative, and his friends should attend the precinct meetings, which will be held at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

Those Aberdeen Marriages.
Aberdeen, Ohio, is almost as famous for runaway marriages as Jeffersonville. One Magistrate married twenty-five couples during March, twenty-six during April and twenty-three during May up to the 30th. It is a pity that there are such places, as the scandals which they cause are innumerable, to say nothing of the lives which are blighted by the hasty and ill-advised marriages. The evils are increased by the reckless indifference of the Magistrates to observing the formalities with which the law has wisely hedged about the institution of marriage. As with the Jeffersonville Magistrate, the fee is the only consideration, and of late there has been some wholesome agitation of the subject. The Maysville Evening Bulletin says that the Rev. D. D. Chapin, of that city, some time ago became convinced that the Aberdeen marriages were not in exact accordance with the laws of Ohio. He wrote to Governor Foraker, by whom the case was referred to the Attorney General and then to the Prosecutor of Brown County, in which Aberdeen is located. An examination of the law books showed that Squire Beasley was liable to a fine of $1,000 for performing marriages without a license.—Louisville Times.

Railway News.

The C. and O.'s business at Portsmouth in May was much larger than in April.

Augusta people want the C. & O. people to attach a passenger coach to the local freight trains.

The Ohio and Mississippi shows net earnings for April of $86,465; increase over net earnings of the corresponding month, 1888, $29,777.

The Tennessee Midland is constructing a bridge over the Tennessee river 1,400 feet long. The structure is to be erected in seven spans, each 200 feet long.

The Louisville Southern railroad is rapidly pushing forward the work of completing the line to Lexington and expects to have trains running into that city by August 1.

The Chesapeake and Ohio road proper is in good running order again. The repairs to the Richmond and Allegheny division, however, have not been fully completed.

The authorities of Mercer County refuse to deliver $20,000 of bonds to the Louisville Southern until the contract to establish a roundhouse and machine shops at Harrodsburg is complied with.

The Louisville and Nashville fiscal year ends June 30, and, it is stated, will show net earnings for the year of $2,250,000 in round numbers. The directors, at the annual meeting, will recommend that the company return to a cash paying basis.

The L. and N. is shortening its line between Cincinnati and Louisville. The work will consist in straightening curves; sidings will be lengthened, the bridges strengthened, trestles renewed, and the entire line placed in the best possible condition for fast time when the running distance shall have been decreased by ten or twelve miles. The company expects to reduce the running time between Louisville and Cincinnati to two hours and forty minutes, and the distance to an even hundred miles.

A double crossing was ordered put down at Second and Market.

Kate Jameson, Lee Ann Alexander and Dennis Thomas were placed on "pension list" at rate of $2 a week, each.

A special election was ordered to be held Monday, June 17th, to fill vacancy in Second ward, caused by the death of John M. Stockton.

In reference to railroad crossing at west end of Forest avenue, Mr. Ficklin read a letter from H. E. Huntington dated May 18, that he "would be here in a few days," but he had failed to show up. On motion of Mr. Ficklin Mr. Huntington was ordered notified that the matter would be placed in hands of attorneys unless he attended to it at once.

On motion of Mr. Wood, Hon. W. H. Wadsworth and L. W. Robertson, Esq., were authorized to prepare a new charter. They are to be paid a fair compensation, but not to exceed $400.

The Laws and Ordinance Committee was directed to prepare an amendment to ferry ordinance, to regulate the running of the boat.

Permits were granted as follows:

John Porter, to erect two-story frame house, corner Sutton and Fourth.

Abner Tucker, to erect a one-story frame house on Mulberry alley.

Hugh Bierbower, to erect a frame metal-roof building on his lot in Fifth ward.

W. L. Davidson, to erect a one-story frame house on south side of Grant street.

N. S. Ingram, to erect a one-story frame cottage on corner of Third street and alley, Fifth ward.

Robert Pollitt was granted auctioneer's license.

Mr. Poyntz moved that the balance of the relief fund of 1884, amounting to a little more than $200, be donated to the sufferers at Johnstown, Pa. Mr. Blatterman moved that the sum be increased to $500. Carried.

Other business of minor importance was transacted, after which council adjourned.

Library Benefit.

Don't fail to attend the public library benefit at opera house to-night. Secure tickets and help a good cause along. Seats can be reserved at Blatterman's bookstore. The entertainment will certainly prove an enjoyable one, and the opera house should be crowded.

HAYSWOOD.

The Annual Commencement Exercises of This Educational Institution.

Three Fair Graduates Sent Forth Upon Their New Lives—The Roll of Honor.

The commencement exercises of Hayswood Female Seminary were held last evening at the First Presbyterian Church. The spacious auditorium was crowded to its fullest seating capacity long before 8 o'clock, and many who were late in arriving were turned away or had to content themselves with "standing room." It was a source of pride to the friends of the school to see what a lively interest was manifested in the closing exercises by the citizens of Maysville and vicinity.

A large stage erected in front of the pulpit was very prettily arranged with lovely flowers and beautiful palms and evergreens. At one side were seated the three fair graduates, in costumes of white. Near by was the Principal of the school, Dr. Hays. Those pupils who were not graduates and who took no part in the exercises were seated in front pews. Behind the Principal and graduates, near the pulpit, was Miss Wilkins, music teacher, with some of her pupils and the chorus. The large room, brilliantly lighted, and crowded to its fullest capacity, presented an interesting scene.

The exercises opened promptly at 8 o'clock with prayer by Rev. Thomas Hanford, of the M. E. Church, after which the following was the programme:
Chorus—"Oh, Taste and See How Gracious the Lord Is!".....Goss
Piano—Annie Laurie.....Lange
Miss Mary Huston January.
Song—"O! Thee I'm Thinking, Margaretta".....Meyer-Helmond
Mrs. Walter Blatterman.

Piano—A Bohemian Scene.....Kuhe
Miss Fanny Frazee.

Valedictory.....Miss Maude Adair
Song—Serenade.....Schnbert
Mrs. Walter Blatterman,
(with Cornet accompaniment.)

Piano—*a. Menuet de Berceame.....Durand
b. Valse Gracieuse.....Spludier*
Miss Hattie Johnson.
DELIVERY OF DIPLOMAS.

Piano—At the Spring.....Joseph
Miss Lida Berry.
Quartet—Invitation to the Dance.....Weber
Misses Berry, Wilkins, Sue Hays and Anna Shackelford.

Chorus—*a. Breathe Softly, ye Winds.....Paxton
b. Hine Belts of Scotland.....Newhardt*
Benediction.....Dr. Hays
The musical part of the programme, under the direction of Miss Wilkins the accomplished teacher in that department of the school, was an enjoyable feature of the evening. The vocal and instrumental selections were excellent, and were rendered in splendid style.

The pupils richly merited the applause with which the selections were received, and Miss Wilkins deserved the many flattering compliments which the music of her pupils elicited from the audience. Some of the many floral designs showered upon the pupils were as appropriate as they were beautiful.

Two of the graduates, Miss Alice Gill and Miss Essie Hutchins, were excused from reading essays on account of ill health.

The diplomas were delivered by Dr. Hays, who then read a list of the pupils who by their deportment, regularity of attendance and good scholarship had won a place on the roll of honor. Following is the list:

Collegiate Department—Misses Maude Adair, Amanda Champlin, Louise Condit, Pattie Green, Alice T. Gill, Esther C. Hutchins, Mary Huston January, Estelle Sparks, Ellen L. Shackelford, Sallie S. Wood.

Primary Department—Misses May Finch, Hattie C. January, Carrie K. Shackelford, Nettie Smith, Florence F. Thomas.

Those present for a full session, but not the entire year, were as follows:

Collegiate Department—Mary Thomas Andrews, Mary Alter Barbour, Ethel M. Gault.

Primary Department—Lily Ray Pecor.

Miss May Finch received special mention for punctuality, having been present every day the entire year, and having never failed to answer to her name at roll call in the morning, and but once in the afternoon.

Dr. Hays announced that the school would resume the first Monday of next September, and that violin music would be added to that department of the institution, if the encouragement received would justify doing so.

Drowned at Vanceburg.

Miss Maggie Adams was drowned at Vanceburg late yesterday afternoon. She was the oldest daughter of Rev. E. P. Adams, a Presbyterian minister of Sandy Springs, Adams County, O. She and her brother had spent the day at Vanceburg. On their way home, in passing around the steamer Silver Wave at the landing, their skiff was caught in the wheel, which was slowly backing at the time, and the young lady was drowned before help could reach her. The boy was caught in the wheel and saved.

MARGARET REID KACKLEY.

Flattering Comments of the Indianapolis Press on Her Appearance at the Musical Festival.

Miss Kackley will arrive next week to spend some time with relatives in this city. She received a grand ovation at the Musical Festival in Indianapolis a few days since, and critics are unanimous in the opinion that a brilliant future awaits her. The many complimentary notices from the press are a source of much gratification and pride to her friends and relatives. The Indianapolis News, of May 29th, says: "Two years ago Miss Kackley was leading soprano in the Third Christian Church choir. From her earliest youth she had given evidence of extraordinary vocal powers. She was still a girl in her teens when she went to Paris to study. She returns, let it be understood, still a pupil. But there is proof of amazing progress. Her voice is rich and sweet, her face round and fair, her presence gracious and modest. She is about to go into grand opera and doubtless many a triumph awaits her, but she can hardly hope for a more signal ovation than that which was given her last night."

"There was something about the slight figure, simply attired in white tulle, with the broad watered ribbon sash, that reminded one strongly of the girlish Patti who used to trip down to the footlights in the old days, before she became burdened with the trouble and title of a French noble. Miss Reid was everything in her favor. Her face is of that intellectual type that interests. She is a brunette of the most pronounced style. Her singing is a delight—delicious. Her tone suggests Albani, whose voice possess a that same velvety, liquid quality."

The News, of May 30, says: "Miss Kackley created the musical sensation of the evening. She appeared in an aesthetic gown of pale pink, garnished with broad bands of silver, which set off her brunette beauty in admirable style. Her selection was Vincenzo's 'Absence et Retour.' The pathos of the opening strains was in direct contrast to the bravura style that finished the composition, and offered Miss Kackley's admirers an opportunity of hearing the wide range of expression her voice has attained. The trills and runs with which the piece abounds were most deliciously given, and the singer was rapturously applauded and recalled again and again."

The Indianapolis Journal of May 30, says: "There is a freshness about her voice that reminds one of a clear limpid stream, and at no time is its serenity disturbed by a harsh note or vibration. It would be safe to say that Tomlinson Hall has never resounded with greater applause than that at the close of her number. Repeated recalls finally brought her accompanist for a second song and she sang 'Home, Sweet Home' exquisitely. Baskets, bouquets and designs of beautiful flowers were showered upon her and filled the front of the platform."

Miss Kackley will return to Europe in July to resume her studies, at Paris. She was born at Germantown, this county, and is a sister of Mrs. M. C. Russell and Messrs. John and J. T. Kackley, of this city.

CAPTAIN C. W. Boyd, of Ripley, has been appointed Deputy Revenue Collector for that district. His friends here will be glad to learn of his good fortune. The Bee says: "His appointment will give general satisfaction. The territory under the charge of the late Deputy Collector, F. M. Stephenson, covered Brown, Highland and Clermont counties, to which Fayette, Warren and Clinton counties have lately been added."

Two Serious Affairs.

The Swiss Government Liable to Get Into Trouble

WITH GERMANY AND RUSSIA.

Both these Powerful Countries May Unite Their Forces and Crush the Poor Little Republic—An Exciting Scene in the French Chamber of Deputies—Other Foreign News.

LONDON, June 7.—News come from Bern that considerable friction has developed between the German and Swiss governments over the recent expulsion from Swiss territory of the German police official, Herr Wohlgenuth. The German authorities at Berlin are never at their ease if there is a single German Socialist in Europe without a policeman to shadow him. To look after the little colony of exiles in Switzerland the government officials at Berlin not long since sent Herr Wohlgenuth into the country, and this gentleman, growing restless because his intended victims would not promptly make a move which would entitle him to pounce upon them, bribed a Swiss Socialist to go among them to stir them up.

This man, however, instead of leading his German brethren into the trap so neatly set for them, disclosed the whole proceedings to his government, whereupon Herr Wohlgenuth was promptly imprisoned. German official influence secured his release, but he was given twenty-four hours to shake the dust of Switzerland from his feet. This was thought at the time would more than satisfy the German government, but in this the Swiss made a mistake. His-panic now demands that the decree of expulsion be rescinded, claiming that the Swiss had failed to observe toward Germany the usual diplomatic courtesy. The whole proceeding excites considerable indignation among diplomatists here who are acquainted with the facts, and Germany is generally regarded as playing the part of a big bully toward her weaker neighbor.

This is not the only case of the kind Switzerland has on her hands. A Russian spy was recently expelled from her territory under precisely similar circumstances, and Russia now is also raising a hubbub about it. The picture of Germany and Russia uniting their forces to crush poor little Switzerland would be an instructive one to the enthusiastic admirer of monarchial chivalry.

An Exciting Scene.

PARIS, June 7.—An exciting scene occurred in the chamber of deputies yesterday when M. Ferry rose to speak on the education budget. The members of the right rose as one man and shouted and shrieked until they became hoarse. M. Ferry remained standing in his place coolly waiting for an opportunity to be heard, but his enemies kept up the cry, "The blood of the Tonquin dead choke you," while insults of the coarsest nature were hurled at him thick and fast. When the angry deputies had quieted down somewhat from sheer exhaustion, Paul De Cassagnac rose, and with a contemptuous nod in the direction of the speaker, said: "Let us submit to this infidelity. Let us listen to this bourgeois, this Venetian deputy." Then facing the president, who was all the time shouting "Order," "Order," he said: "We swallow our disgust, Mr. President. Let him talk." Ferry then proceeded with his speech.

Of Course, They Know.

LONDON, June 7.—The St. James Gazette prints a leading editorial on the subject of the Behring sea controversy, which it heads, "Diplomatic Draw Poker." The article declares that the key to Mr. Blaine's preposterous claims in Behring sea, is his belief that a first-class controversy with England is necessary to mark him as a diplomat of the foremost rank. Blaine knows that a bit of belief will sometimes prevent a call from any but the strongest hands. The article concludes that the United States government has set up a fictitious claim in Behring sea, solely with a view to offset the Canadians claim in the fisheries disputes.

A Marchioness Murdered.

BRUSSELS, June 8.—The Marchioness Dechasteler, belonging to one of the oldest of the noble families of Belgium, was found murdered in her bed at her residence, Chateau Moulbaix, at Mons. The crime has created great excitement.

The Marchioness De Chasteler was shot through the heart. The ball having been fired at her through a window, the report of the weapon projecting, it was not heard in the house. It is supposed that the murderer is a farmer who was angry with the marchioness for refusing to reduce his rent.

Go Away From Home For News.

LONDON, June 7.—The Times' Berlin correspondent telegraphs that it seems to be taken for granted in diplomatic circles in Berlin that Munt Halstead will soon receive the appointment of United States minister to Germany.

A Destructive Fire in Prussia.

LONDON, June 7.—A fire in the village of Lebonsch, near Rutilari in Prussian Silesia yesterday, destroyed 103 houses, including the village church and vicarage. Seven hundred of the villagers are rendered homeless.

Probably a London Detective.

BERLIN, June 7.—A New York detective, who came from the Paris exhibition and is now visiting in Berlin, had his pocket picked here yesterday. He lost his money and some valuable papers.

An Overflowed River.

MADRID, June 7.—The river Manzanares has overflowed its banks, inundating the whole valley. Many houses are submerged, and their occupants have been rescued with great difficulty.

Property Damaged by a Storm.

LONDON, June 7.—A tremendous thunder storm pass over London yesterday. The lightning was intensely vivid. Much property has been damaged and several cases of loss of life are reported.

Crops Ruined by a Flood.

LONDON, June 7.—Disastrous floods are reported from different parts in Bavaria, with considerable destruction of property. The crops are ruined in many sections.

A CITY DESTROYED BY FIRE.

Seattle, Wyoming Territory, Visited by a Destructive Conflagration.

TACOMA, W. T., June 7.—The most solidly built part of Seattle was destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon, and last night. The flames are still burning. The fire started in the Denny block, on Front street, and, as a strong wind was blowing up the bay, it soon spread beyond the control of the fire department. The opera house and Coleman blocks soon followed the Denny, and the flames soon spread on to the end of the row, destroying the Western Union and Postal Telegraph companies, the largest dry goods stores, a bank, a jewelry store and the newspaper offices. It then jumped across the street to the Occidental hotel, the largest in the place, a four-story stone building, and soon reduced it to ashes. All the buildings destroyed were substantially built of brick and stone, most of them being three, four and five stories high.

The fire is still spreading and it seems likely to take the whole business part of the town. Engines have been telegraphed for to this city, Portland and Port Townsend. One engine was sent from here at 4 o'clock, and all the assistance possible was sent over by train and boat. All the buildings south and east of the Occidental for several squares are of wood, and some of them old and dry, and burn like tinder. They rest on piles and made ground, and as the wind sweeps under as well as above and around them, they cannot be saved if once ignited. To the west are the wharves and ware houses of the Railroad and Sound Transportation companies. It seems probable that the best part of the city will be destroyed. The loss is great and will probably reach $5,000,000.

Died While Kneeling in Prayer.

St. Louis, June 7.—Mrs. Andrew Harty, wife of a well known citizen of St. Louis, died suddenly last night, while kneeling at her bedside in prayer. She had been in perfect health and in good spirits half an hour before her death. The deceased was a devout Catholic, and one of her sons is Father Harty, rector of St. Leo's church. Heart disease was the cause of death.

THE MISSING MINER.

Renewed Efforts to Find Him Fail—His Wife at Indianapolis.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 7.—The mystery surrounding the disappearance of Thomas Hislop, the Clay county miner, is still unsolved, and every effort to find the body has proved a failure. The river was dragged again yesterday, and in the evening a dozen dynamite cartridges were exploded in the deepest water, but without result. Mrs. Hislop reached here yesterday morning, and is almost distracted with grief.

She brought a letter which she had received Wednesday from her husband, and in it he spoke of the trouble which he had experienced in his attempts to find employment, and threatened suicide, but she does not believe that such a thing was possible. She thinks that he was induced to write the letter while intoxicated, and was afterward murdered by the strange men who were seen with him late Tuesday evening. A dozen or more of Hislop's friends accompanied the stricken woman here, and each declares that Hislop would not have taken his own life. The letter to his wife is doubly strange in the light of the fact that he owns considerable property at Brazil, and was not here hunting work, but taking subscriptions for the striking miners.

Flourish Murder to Blow Up a Church.

POMEROY, O., June 7.—Monday night, while services were being held in the Free Methodist church, near this city, an attempt was made to blow up the building. A lot of powder had been placed under the church, to which a fuse was attached and lighted, but it missed fire. Fully half a peck of blasting powder was taken from under the building after the attempt was discovered by the congregation. At least one hundred persons would have been killed had the powder been ignited.

The corn crop is looking well considering the cold weather.

The cool weather has been rather hard on the melon crop.

Ike Chancellor hauled 7,000 pounds of tobacco into Carlisle at one wagon-load. It brought 10 cents a pound,—$760.

T. T. Jones, of Mercer County, has a milch cow "with twin calves as different from one another as is possible. One is a male, the other a female; one is a blood-red, the other white as snow; one is perfect in form, the other without any tail whatever."

According to motion adopted at the Lexington meeting Feb. 19th, the Tobacco Growers' Association will meet at Lexington Tuesday, June 18th, 1889. It is requested that every county in the White Sulphur district be represented, and that a full report of the condition of the various counties be made.

GERMANTOWN.

At last. Our citizens will vote in August whether to have street lamps or not.

Matt Pearce, candidate for County Clerk, has been circulating among his many friends this week.

Dr. A. H. Wall and wife, of your city, spent Tuesday here with their daughter, Mrs. E. C. Dimmick.

Our band have received their handsome new caps and torches, and present a very fine appearance.

Annie Wright, Rev. Wright's infant daughter, had her collar bone fractured last Monday, but is now improving.

We have a regular old-fashioned Virginia negro here in the shape of George Lawrence, a boy just from there. His dialect is very amusing.

Strawberries plentiful and selling at 40 cents. The wild strawberry crop is reported by Mile Estep to be unusually large, and are selling at 50 cents, capped.

Rev. Ebricht, wife and daughter, who are visiting relatives in Ohio, arrived at Washington C. H. the very day Mrs. Ebricht's mother died. It was a sudden death. Mrs. Ebricht has the sympathy of our entire community in her great loss.

Our present P. M.'s time expires in the near future, and we are not certain who will be his successor—Kelly or Pepper. We understand the present incumbent, S. D. Rigdon, is making a strong fight for it.
